Three-Year Application Deadline - The free care requirement was first imposed on May 22, 1992. Note that only patients served after December 14, 2000 are bound by the three-year application deadline. Hospitals must still accept application at any time from a patient served before December 14, 2000.

Western Reserve Hospital Financial Assistance Program - This program is not funded and is exclusive to Western Reserve Hospital. Western Reserve Hospital's administration approved this program to provide basic, medically necessary care free of charge to individuals from families whose house hold income is marginally above the Federal guideline to up to 400% the Federal guideline. (Program is subject to cancellation or change at any time)
