Statement of Confidentiality

Except as otherwise provided by law, all proceedings of the Patient and Family Advisory Council (the PFAC) and all communications made to and from the PFAC are confidential. PFAC members and other PFAC participants (including ah-hoc members and consultants) may not disclose any communication made to or from the PFAC nor information discussed during the course of or written records of PFAC proceedings. Any disclosure of PFAC information to any third party who is not a participant in the Council's activities is a breach of confidentiality.

I, the undersigned, understand and acknowledge the above statement of confidentiality. I agree to maintain the confidentiality of all PFAC proceedings and communications. I understand that Western Reserve Hospital is entitled to take an action it deems appropriate to maintain the confidentiality of the PFAC's activities, including if necessary, my removal from the PFAC.
